Dear Sir

Re: Recommencement of drilling at Croydon

Gold Aura Limited (GOA) announced today that diamond drilling has re-commenced at Croydon at the A2 magnetic anomaly within the Wallabadah EPM 13775. The first hole, A2-003, drilled on an inclination of 60° towards 354° magnetic, is collared 200 metres to the north of the discovery hole A2-001. A2-001 intersected polymetallic vein style mineralisation with significant levels of zinc, tin, silver and copper (including 133m at 1.1% zinc, 18.3 g/t silver, 0.15% tin and 0.36% copper) being intersected under some 115 metres of younger cover rocks.

LOCATION OF HOLE A2-003

A review of the magnetic data obtained from the discovery hole, A2-001, suggests that the hole was drilled on the periphery of the A2 magnetic anomaly. The current hole, A2-003, is expected to intersect the centre of the anomaly.

A second drill rig is scheduled to be available for deployment in July. At this stage, it is planned that the second drill rig will commence testing of the A1 magnetic anomaly, located approximately 8 kilometres to the east-north-east of A2.
